Dear Buyer:

This fourth edition of our Green Book data base is a welcome opportunity for me to remind you of the important role you play in shaping the future of agriculture here in Massachusetts.

Your buying power is the link in the distribution chain that keeps our local farmers producing in the volume they require to wholesale their product.

We trust you will find freshness and high quality evident in all your "Massachusetts-grown" purchases. We also hope you will let us know when you cannot find a source or sufficient volume of any local produce item in season.

Fresh produce seems to be an ever increasingly popular food item, and the current "Five-A-Day for Better Health Program" can only escalate the demand.

In addition to offering nutritional value, our products are grown in a state where our government provides growers with the expertise needed to reduce the use of pesticides through Integrated Pest Management and other sustainable agricultural practices.

Please give us your comments and questions on any of the variety of food and agricultural products of Massachusetts. If you would like other product listings or would like to order some of the colorful Massachusetts point-of-purchase materials, please phone the Bureau of Markets at (617) 727-3018.

Your interest in buying products from the Bay State will help keep our food and agricultural economy thriving. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Jonathan L. Healy
Commissioner

The fourth edition of The Green Book was produced by the above Bureau of Markets staff, as well as the many farmers who provided updated information on their operations.

This publication lists Massachusetts producers of agricultural products that wholesale to retailers. These businesses responded to a mailed questionnaire and telephone inquiries; therefore, not all Massachusetts growers are listed. Every effort has been made to maintain accuracy and completeness. Please notify us of any inaccuracies or omissions.
